inspired BY THE SEASONS

Each growing season our land blesses us with a bounty of tasty fruits and vegetables. Our menu is inspired by the seasons and by the local farmers and artisans who partner with us. Throughout the course of the growing season, we will have different sandwiches and salads available for catering. These are all based on our ever changing produce selection. When you order catering from The Farmer's Porch, you can expect that all your food is prepared from scratch with fresh, abundantly-local ingredients.
